Capital Region Food Program Recipient of $4,995 Donation from FEEDNH.org

CONCORD, NH — The Capital Region Food Program (CRFP) is the recipient of a $4,995 donation from FEEDNH.org, the charitable trust for Great NH Restaurants (T-BONES, CJ's, Cactus Jack's, & Copper Door), raised during the month of November as part of the organizations' online 50/50 raffle.

"We're so excited to be in the center of the state and get more familiar with and support the non-profits in the area," says Tanya Randolph, Ambassador of Philanthropy and Community Outreach for Great NH Restaurants. "The CRFP was selected as a recipient for this raffle due to its alignment with FEEDNH.org's mission of strengthening New Hampshire communities through philanthropic collaboration."

Tim Grotheer, Chair of the CRFP states, "We are sincerely grateful to FEEDNH.org for supporting the CRFP's mission of reducing hunger in the greater Concord area. Every dollar donated to the CRFP is solely used for the purchasing of food and this donation certainly helps us to fulfill our mission. We welcome FEEDNH.org to the Capital area and look forward to working collaboratively to further our mission in the future."

For more information about the CRFP and its two programs, visit capitalregionfoodprogram.org.
